32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

Like the bride in the parable of the ten bridesmaids, we know that Christ, the bridegroom, is coming - but we do not know when. None of us can tell when Christ is coming to take us away from this earthly life just as none of us can tell when He will come again at the end of time.

Readings Wisdom 6:12-16 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 Matt 25:1-13

Psalm 62 For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

Acclamation Alleluia, alleluia!

Stay awake & stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

November – Month of Prayer for the Holy Souls

Please place the names of your deceased friends and relation in the box in front of the altar.

Please pray for Teresa Burke (formerly of Enterprise House) who died on 24 October. Her funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Gerry Brunning an Old Ignatian who lived in South Woodford whose Funeral Mass will be at St Thomas of Canterbury Woodford on Monday 23 November at 10am

May they rest in peace.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.*

*I love You above all things,
And I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.*

*I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from
You. Amen.

CHRISTMAS MASSES

Usually the most popular Mass by far is the Vigil Mass for Christmas at 6pm on Christmas Eve – especially for young families.

Given the extraordinary circumstances, this year there will be TWO Vigil Masses for Christmas – at 4pm & 6pm.

But you will need to book in order to come to EITHER of these Masses.

To maximize the seating capacity, only families with children living at home (including children at Uni) can book seats before Friday December 4.

After December 4, couples or individuals will be able to book any spare seats

Bookings open on Sunday 8 November & will close on Friday December 11.

To book please visit:

COVID :HOW TO SURVIVE A WINTER LOCKDOWN BY THOSE WHO'VE DONE IT

As the dark nights draw in ever earlier and ever colder, the prospect of winter lockdowns across the UK are filling many of us with dread. But millions of people across the world have already experienced coronavirus lockdowns often in sub-zero temperatures - so what can we learn from them?
